COMMON PRAYER.
S O

That you may find any of them, when named by the MINISTER, though you know not what Sunday it is.

AND ALSO
What Texts of Scripture are quo-
red, being contained in them.
To be found in an Alphabetical manner.

This Table may put in your Common Prayer Book, without new binding, being so small a thing.

London, Printed for Sam. Keble, at the Turks-Head in Fleet-street, over against Fetter-lane. 1690.

To the READER.

I Think it may be convenient to give some Account of the Usefulness of this Table, to the Epistles and Gospels in the Book of Common-Prayer. The first is to them that have not so good a memory as to remember what Sunday it is; so that when they come to Church, they know not how to find the Epistles or Gospels appointed for the day.

As for Example; The Minister always says, Here begins such an Epistle (not naming what Sunday it is) taken out of the 13th Chapter of the Roman beginning at the 8th Verse. Now cast your Eye on this Table looking for R. for the 13th. of the Roman and the 8th Verse; and you will find it to be the Sunday in Advent; and so any other in the same manner.

The Second is to find any Text of Scripture contained in them, as when a Text is taken out of the New Testament it is very probably it may be found in either the Epistle or Gospel, which is very convenient to them that have not a Bible with them.

The Third thing is the Method it is Printed in, being divided into four Columns: The first is the Names of the Books of the New Testament: The second the Chapters: The third the Verses: The fourth the Sundays and Holidays. All which being put in an Alphabetical manner for finding any thing in the Table with much ease.

This Table may be put in your Common-Prayer Book without new binding, being so small a thing.
